

VISIT PHILADELPHIA™

20+ Must-See Exhibitions in Philadelphia for Summer 2016

Creative Africa, PoliticalFest, Science Behind Pixar and more

13. Arresting Patterns at the African American Museum

Dates: Through September 17, 2016

Location: African American Museum, 701 Arch Street

Inspired by recent events stirring racial tension and discussion in America, Arresting Patterns at the African American Museum seeks to uncover the often-overlooked patterns of racial disparity in the U.S. criminal justice system. The exhibition pulls together work from a group of artists whose pieces are tied together through themes of repetition and replication, used to recognize how one action, repeated over time, may accumulate, spread or evolve into another version of its original self.

MORE ON ARRESTING PATTERNS AT THE AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM

14. Bill Graham and the Rock and Roll Revolution at the National Museum of American Jewish History

Dates: September 16, 2016 - January 16, 2017

Location: National Museum of American Jewish History, 101 S. Independence Mall East

From Jimi Hendrix to Santana to The Rolling Stones, Bill Graham has worked with many of the greats of rock and roll and has launched the careers of plenty of legends who gained their fame in the '60s. Through rock memorabilia, photographs, psychedelic art and more, the National Museum of American Jewish History dives deep into the life of this notable promoter and manager, while exploring the cultural transformations that took place during the '60s, '70s, and '80s in the world of rock and roll.

MORE ON BILL GRAHAM AND THE ROCK AND ROLL REVOLUTION AT THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORY

15. Hello Sailor: The Sailor Icon in Pop Culture at the Independence Seaport Museum

Dates: Through Fall 2016

Location: Independence Seaport Museum, 211 S. Columbus Boulevard

Ahoy captain. The Independence Seaport Museum welcomes you aboard to view its latest exhibition, Hello Sailor: The Sailor Icon in Pop Culture. Putting the classic, white "dixie-cup" capped sailor at the display's center, curator Alex Stadler walks visitors through a window of 20th-century American pop culture by pulling together nautical-related graphics, photos, movies, artwork and advertisements. Designed to be lighthearted and playful, the exhibition features pieces ranging from 1930s sheet music to depictions of a sailor-dressed Kim Kardashian on her way to a Halloween party.

MORE ON HELLO SAILOR AT INDEPENDENCE SEAPORT MUSEUM

