Bill Graham and the Rock-and-Roll Revolution

Sept. 16-Jan. 16, National Museum of American Jewish History, 101 S. Independence Mall E., 215-923-3811.

The life of Bill Graham, a key promoter behind 1985's Live Aid concert in Philadelphia, will be on display at the National Museum of American Jewish History. Graham was a Holocaust survivor who went on to work with acts such as the Grateful Dead, Jefferson Airplane, Janis Joplin, Jimi Hendrix, Santana, Fleetwood Mac, The Who, Led Zeppelin, the Doors, Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, Bob Dylan, the Band, and the Rolling Stones. The exhibit will feature concert posters, memorabilia, photos, films, and ephemera from Graham's career, while examining the way rock brought about social change.
