EVENT

Being ___ at Christmas

On a day when most of the city is closed for Christmas, the National Museum of American Jewish History presents a day of comedy, storytelling, arts and crafts and music. Listen to music from Emmy Award-winning Alex & the Kaleidoscope; get your hands dirty with the Clay Studio; catch a screening of classic films from the Marx Brothers; and bust a gut with a comedic performance from The Great Holtzie. 10 Am. National Museum of American Jewish History, 101 Independence Mall. nmajh.org
